WHAT WILL I STUDY?

Students will study a Certificate of Liberal Arts, with access to 4 university subjects from the field of arts and humanities. Clemente will help build communication skills including writing, speaking and presenting, planning, critical thinking and self-organisation from experts in their discipline.

Our upcoming program offers two options:

- 'Being Human' (Philosophy)
  - Wednesday at Common Ground, South Brisbane
- 'Scandals & Deception: Navigating Controversy' (Social Science & Arts)
  - Thursday at Australian Catholic University, Banyo

Program details:

- 10 – 15 students per class
- 1 or 2 subjects per semester (1 to 2 years in total, or longer if needed)

COST

There is no cost to students. HECS fees are waived, with all lunches and required resources provided.

Volunteer Learning Partners assist students in all aspects of study including using technology, accessing online resources and assessment.

WHO CAN APPLY?

Those who:

- have missed education due to hardship
- are returning to study after disconnecting
- are recovering from personal challenges
- are seeking to better understand their goals

ELIGIBILITY

To apply, you must be able to:

- commit to 4 hours attendance each week for a 13 week program
