

NAME:

Multiculturalism

You are now going to use De Bono's Six Thinking Hats to analyse multiculturalism in Australia. Look at the table below and complete the tasks for each different coloured hat. Some of the questions may require you to do extra research.

WHITE HAT List two facts about the makeup of Australia's population.
RED HAT How do you feel about having many different cultures in the country?
BLACK HAT Are there any negatives to a multicultural society?
YELLOW HAT What are the positives of a multicultural society?
GREEN HAT What can we do to help new settlers from different countries to settle into Australia?
BLUE HAT Overall, is the development of Australia into a multicultural society a positive development? Why/why not?

Research one of the countries identified in Figure 1 and list some of the ways this country's culture has influenced Australian society.

Teacher Guide – Multiculturalism

You are now going to use De Bono’s Six Thinking Hats to analyse multiculturalism in Australia. Look at the table below and complete the tasks for each different coloured hat. Some of the questions may require you to do extra research.

WHITE HAT List two facts about the makeup of Australia’s population.	Student responses will vary
RED HAT How do you feel about having many different cultures in the country?	Student responses will vary
BLACK HAT Are there any negatives to a multicultural society?	The existence of many different cultures in one country can potentially lead to conflicts between different cultures and ethnic groups.
YELLOW HAT What are the positives of a multicultural society?	Different cultures are a source of diverse knowledge and experience, which can increase innovation, creativity and prosperity. Multiculturalism can also lead to the introduction of new foods, music etc. Skilled immigrants can fill gaps in the labour market.
GREEN HAT What can we do to help new settlers from different countries to settle into Australia?	Student responses will vary
BLUE HAT Overall, is the development of Australia into a multicultural society a positive development? Why/why not?	Student responses will vary

Research one of the countries identified in Figure 1 and list some of the ways this country’s culture has influenced Australian society.